- ◆ Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless. Mother Teresa
- ◆ Life isn't a matter of milestones, but of moments. Rose Kennedy
- ◆ Today a new sun rises for me; everything lives, everything is animated, everything seems to speak to me of my passion, everything invites me to cherish it. . . . Anne de Lenclos
- ◆ Far away there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them but I can look up and see their beauty. Believe in them and try to follow them. Louisa May Alcott

Joint Effort is a Proud Sponsor of the Pikes Peak Challenge

The Pikes Peak Challenge is a unique fundraising event held annually in September that encourages registered participants to experience the excitement and success of hiking to the summit of Pikes Peak.

Survivors of brain injury, family members and community supporters all come together to hike this magnificent mountain.

Fund raising proceeds benefit the Brain Injury Association of Colorado. The Brain Injury Association supports survivor assistance programs geared toward dealing with the ramifications of a Traumatic Brain Injury including an online state resource directory of services.

The Brain Injury Association provides direct services to two thousand survivors, families and professionals annually. Several thousand more are served through community outreach programs.

The 2004 Pikes Peak Challenge is Saturday September 11. Pre-registration is required by either logging on to pikespeakchallenge.com or brochures are available at both Joint Effort locations. If you have any questions,

Joint Effort is pleased to welcome Linda Boyles to our administrative team. Linda, who grew up in Bayport, Minnesota, has been a Colorado Springs resident for 30 years. She graduated from Colorado College in 1978 with a degree in business. Linda stayed home and raised Sara, now 23 and Aaron, 21. After her husband John's death a year ago, she left his family business where she worked for 4 1/2 years. Linda likes to bike, hike, travel, sew, and keep track of two active kids. All of us at Joint Effort feel fortunate to have Linda and her expertise on our team. Feel free to stop by our South office and meet this wonderful lady.
